

59th Pacific Northwest Great Books Weekend

June 22 – 24, 2018

Seattle Pacific University in Seattle, Washington

(note new location)

Please join other book lovers for shared inquiry discussions of. . .

- As I Lay Dying by William Faulkner, the classic 1930 novel of family relationships
- Passing by Neila Larsen, a 1929 novel about identity and friendship
- Being Mortal by Atul Gawande, published in 2014 exploring how we approach ageing and dying
- Caleb's Crossing by Geraldine Brooks, 2011 historical fiction of the first Native American to attend Harvard in 1665 focusing on finding our purpose and living in two cultures

Cost includes two nights' lodging at Arnett Hall, six meals, and a set of books.

Registration

Name (Names): _____

Email: _____

Address to mail books: _____

Request separate discussion groups       Request additional set of books $50.00

Special Accommodations: _____

Commuter: $180.00

Commuting Couple: $270.00

Single staying in Arnett Hall: $280.00

Couple staying in Arnett Hall: $470.00

Total payment enclosed: _____

Accommodations, meal times, and discussion times will be picked up at registration.

For further clarification, contact Steven Burdick 253-850-3514 or cadab@spu.edu

Make checks payable to Pacific Northwest Great Books and mail to

Cindy Bouldin 5731 NE 62nd St. Seattle, WA 98115