

60th Annual Northwest Great Books Weekend

Welcome! We are excited to have you joining us for the 60th Annual Northwest Great Books Weekend. Here is what your weekend event will entail:

Saturday June 29th

Registration 8:30 am-10:00 am	Arnett Hall lobby (cross streets are W. Cremona Street and 6th Avenue West), same location as last year. Beverages, fruit, and rolls will be served along with the opportunities for conversations with friends and book lovers. All discussions are in Demaray Hall (like last year).
Discussion 10:15 am-11:45 am	Exit West – Room assignment will be picked up at Registration
Lunch 12-1:00 pm	Cafeteria
Discussion 1:30 pm-3:00 pm	Citizen: An American Lyric
Party Time 4:30 pm Happy Hour	Thai Fusion
Dinner 5:00 pm-7:00 pm	Thai Fusion Restaurant and Lounge at 15 Nickerson (3 blocks east of campus-and easy stroll). Everyone will have separate checks making payment easy peasy. Please RSVP by June 15 to Steven Burdick at 253-850-3514 or cadab@gmail.com

Sunday June 30th

Breakfast 8:00 am-9:00 am	Campus cafeteria
Discussion 9:30 am-11:00 am	King Lear
Lunch on the Terrace 11:30-1:00 am	Arnett Hall-You'll find lots of interested conversation and a quick update on all things Great Books! Please join us for a bite to eat and some comradeship. A special thank you to board member, Cindy Bouldin for sponsoring Lunch on the Terrace!
Discussion 1:30 pm-3:00 pm	Man's Search for Meaning

Our last discussion will be followed by a short, Northwest Great Books evaluation. Please be thinking about how we can improve, we love creative input.
